Deciphering the Form 990

IRS Form 990 contains a wealth of information—far too much to discuss in a quick overview. Here, however, is a review of the parts of the form as well as an introduction to several of the fields people find most useful and tips for deciphering the information you'll find in the 990.

The Header

Although it makes up a relatively small portion of the 990, the header contains information that can orient you before you review the form.

Form year. The IRS uses the beginning of the fiscal year covered by a 990 for the form year. It uses the end of the fiscal year for the fiscal year date. Thus, if the fiscal year began 7/1/14 and ended 6/31/15, the form year would be 2014, but the fiscal year would be 2015. Check line A to confirm the fiscal year start and end dates. Use the fiscal year to find 990s on GuideStar.

Part I — Summary

Part I is exactly its title says it is—a summary of key information presented elsewhere in the form. It's a snapshot of what is in the rest of the 990.

GuideStar users are often surprised that they can't find donor lists in a 990. With two exceptions, donor information provided in a 990 is confidential; when either the IRS or the filing nonprofit releases a copy of a 990 to the public, they must redact—mask—all information that will identify the donors, whether the donor is an individual, corporation, 501(c)(3) private foundation, or 501(c)(3) public charity.

The exceptions are Forms 990-PF filed by 501(c)(3) private foundations and Forms 990 filed by Section 527 political organizations. For these nonprofits, donor information is public information.

Part II — Signature Block

Part II is located at the bottom of the first page of the 990 and shows the signature and title of the nonprofit official who approved the 990 and, if a paid preparer completed the form, who that person was.

The 990 is an official document, submitted to the IRS under penalties of perjury.

Part III — Mission and Programs

Part III describes the nonprofit's mission and its most significant activities carrying out that mission.

Part IV — Checklist of Required Schedules

When the IRS released the current Form 990 at the end of 2007, it was the first time since 1979 that the form had been completely overhauled. As part of the redesign, the IRS created several schedules to provide more information on issues of concern to the public, Congress, and the IRS itself.

Part	V Checklist of Required Schedules		Yes	No
			Yes	NO
1	Is the organization described in section 501(c)(3) or 4947(a)(1) (other than a private foundation)? If "Yes," complete Schedule A	1

5	Is the organization a section 501(c)(4), 501(c)(5), or 501(c)(6) organization that receives membership dues, assessments, or similar amounts as defined in Revenue Procedure 98-19? If "Yes," complete Schedule C, Part III	5
6	Did the organization maintain any donor advised funds or any similar funds or accounts for which donors have the right to provide advice on the distribution or investment of amounts in such funds or accounts? If "Yes," complete Schedule D, Part I	6

Part IV poses 38 questions on such topics as engagement in political activities, paid fundraiser expenses, gaming revenue, and loans made by exempt organizations to their board members and senior staff. An organization answering "Yes" to any question in Part IV must file the schedule indicated on that line. Part IV takes up two full pages of the 990.

Part V — Statements Regarding Other IRS Filings and Tax Compliance

Although not required to pay federal income tax, a tax-exempt organization may still need to file IRS forms related to employee wages and withholding, unrelated business income (income generated by activities that do not directly carry out the nonprofit's mission), sponsorship of donoradvised funds, and even income received for indoor tanning services. Part V comprises 14 questions addressing these additional filings and compliance issues.

Part VI — Governance, Management, and Disclosure

Part VI is another section added to the 990 as part of the revision released in December 2007. It contains questions about the filing organization's governing body (i.e., its board); whether the nonprofit has conflict of interest, whistleblower, document retention/destruction, and other policies in place; the procedures it follows for establishing executive compensation; and how it makes its public documents (its three most current 990s and application for exemption) available to the public.

IRS officials believe that nonprofits that follow best practices in these areas are more likely to be in compliance with the Internal Revenue Code.
